We are recruiting a:

COMMUNICATIONS Specialist

The Job:

Your role will be focused on promoting the vision of “Jesus Celebration 2033”, its activities, its projects and its collaborators.

Together with the vision owner, you develop a communication policy, communication strategy and plan. As the leader of communications you will orchestrate the implementation of the different communications activities.

Your field of action is wide: internal communication, corporate communication (corporate image communication), event communication, digital (corporate, social networks), etc.

Your profile :

You are extrovert and creative. You love to write as well as contact with others, even when you do not know them. You like to communicate.

You completed your studies or training and you have validated experience in communication, journalism, marketing or equivalent, you speak and write French or/and English fluently, you have a valid working permit for CH and you want to put these skills into practice in your professional life? So come and join us!

We will provide you with the necessary tools, equipment and training that will give you valuable experience in exchange for a commitment for 2 years. Having already an experience in this field is obviously a plus!
